EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

The 2025 International Conference on Magnet Technology, MT29, will be held at the Omni Boston Hotel at the Seaport in Boston, Massachusetts, USA from July 1 – 6, 2025. MT29 will host a Scientific and Industrial Exhibition which will bring together scientists and engineers from the worldwide research community. The exhibition officially begins on Wednesday, July 2 and ends on Saturday, July 5. The exhibition space will be arranged to provide maximal exposure to the conference delegates during poster sessions, refreshment breaks and the Welcome & Exhibitor Reception.

MT23 was held previously in Boston, where the local area enjoys being the home to MIT Plasma Science and Fusion Center, Commonwealth Fusion Systems, the Francis Bitter Magnet Lab, Tufts University, and many companies and academic organizations engaged in developing advanced magnet technology, including commercial fusion devices. The MT conference series addresses all aspects of research, development, construction, testing, and operation of superconducting, resistive and permanent magnets as well as enabling technologies, such as cryogenics and materials characterization. We expect attendance of around 1000 of the top scientists and engineers from around the world who are involved in this field.

Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to present your company's latest products, services, and techniques in an intimate setting to a sophisticated audience involved in the research and development of magnet research. Your company will have a valuable opportunity for one-on-one interaction with researchers from industry, universities, and both private and government laboratories who are involved in making and/or influencing purchasing decisions for their companies and institutions.
